

Gabriel Ioannou

Audit and Tax

Director

Strategic, analytical and results oriented finance professional, Gabriel Ioannou has several years of experience in the accounting profession in both the UK and Cyprus.

During his work experience in both the UK and Cyprus Gabriel has allocated his time between the audit and tax advisory departments thereby developing an acute commercial awareness together with proficiency in understanding of the tax and accounting issues affecting clients, thereby advising them accordingly.

He has gained considerable experience in a diverse portfolio of local and international clients ranging from large multinationals to family-owned businesses and high net worth individuals. He is a member of the Kreston High Net Worth Individuals Group (which is a sub group of Kreston Global Tax Group).

He was a member of ICPAC'S Listed Companies and Capital Markets Committee and then of Small and Medium Practises Committee and currently serves as a Non-Executive director in both the public (Cyprus Radiotelevision Authority) and private sectors. Gabriel served until recently as a member of the Board and Treasurer of Special Olympics Cyprus.

Following completion of his BSc in Accounting and Finance in the London School of Economics and Political Science (LSE), Gabriel proceeded to complete his ACA qualification whilst working in London. He is currently a member of ICAEW (Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales) and practising member of ICPAC (Institute of Certified Public Accountants of Cyprus).

Outside of work, Gabriel is interested in sports and predominantly football and enjoys reading health related articles/books and travelling.
